

Under the patronage of the Minister of Tourism and Antiquities/Chairman of Board of Trustees, her Excellency Ms. Lina Ennab, AAUC celebrated on Tuesday evening 11/10/2016 the graduation of the thirteenth batch of its Bachelor students and the nineteenth batch of its diploma students in the disciplines of Hotel Management and Tourism Management.

An American delegation, accompanied by the Chairman of the Board, Mr. Nadim Muasher, visited AAUC on Tuesday 23/8/2016 for mutual cooperation.

On Sunday 30/10/2016, AAUC signed a grant for achieving excellence and attracting female students to hospitality specializations. This grant is supported by the USAID tourism project which aims to strengthen economic sustainability in Jordan.

On Sunday 30/10/2016, AAUC signed a grant for achieving excellence and attracting female students to hospitality specializations. This grant is supported by the USAID tourism project which aims to strengthen economic sustainability in Jordan.

Mr. Borno Sylvester and Mr. Joe Tasso from the Hotel Furniture Manufacturing Company in Canada visited AAUC on Sunday 29/1/2017.

AAUC hosted a delegation from Lithuania Business University on 1-11-2016. Both parties discussed academic collaboration and establishing an exchange program for students and faculty in the near future. The delegation toured the facilities of the college and they were impressed by them.

AAUC hosted the Hilton Hotel and Tamweelcom Foundation on Tuesday 10/1/2017 to provide an initiative to entrepreneurial students at the college.

A delegation from the British Council visited AAUC on Tuesday 29/11/2016.

The college hosted Dr. Amer Al-Hafi from the Royal Institute for Religious Studies on Sunday 15-1-2017 to hold an awareness lecture on extremism and terrorism and its relationship with religions.

On Thursday 12-1-2017, the college hosted a number of Civil Defense Officers and held a fire fighting course in the college theater. There was a practical implementation during the training course at the college playground.

On Thursday, 12-1-2017, the college hosted members of the Civil Defense Officers and held a first aid course in the college theater with stimulation-based learning.

On Monday 7/11/2016, Lieutenant Ashraf Al Amareen from the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) gave an awareness session entitled "drugs damages and their effects on human and their relation to social problems". He also warned male and female students about drugs' effects on their daily lives.

La Pantera establishment organized and supervised a Turkish cuisine training course on the AAUC premises on 27-29/10/2016. La Pantera hosted Chef Ozlem Warren to conduct this course. Those who attended the course were chefs from Jordanian hotels as well as the AAUC training kitchen chefs and students.

Engineer Umaima Al Majthoub participated in a scientific trip to Plymouth, Britain from October 9-14th, 2016, which was supported by the British Council in Amman. The purpose of this trip was to explore new entrepreneurial techniques at entrepreneurial universities in Britain.

The Dean of AAUC, Dr. Muhsen Makhamreh, met the new students for the academic year 2016/2017. He welcomed the new students and briefed them on the programs, activities, and regulations of the college.

AAUC participated in the International Forum of Hospitality and Food Industries event in the HORECA JORDAN 2016, which took place on the 8-10th of October 2016 at the Zara Expo in the Grand Hyatt Hotel Amman.

AAUC participated in "TA'LEEM" Exhibition held specifically for universities from 30/10/2016 – 1/11/2016 at the Zara Expo – Grand Hyatt Hotel Amman.

The Ammon Applied University College (AAUC) conducted a training course on food hygiene procedures on Saturday 29/10/2016 for participants from the local community who provide food and beverages for visitors in the tourist itineraries in Um Qais.

A delegation from Petra University students visited AAUC on Monday 02/01/2017.

A delegation from Jordan Education for Employment (JEFE) visited AAUC on Sunday 5/2/2017 and Monday 6/2/2017.

A group of students from Latin School visited AAUC on Wednesday 19/10/2016.

Ammon Applied University College

@AAUC_hospitality

AAUC

Phone: 962-6-562-9232

Fax: 962-6-567-1133

E-mail: deanship@aauc.edu.jo